ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

Probation on Count 1 of the Information for a term of 1 year under following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office and General Order 05-02.
2. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
3. The defendant shall perform 120 hours of community service, as directed by the Probation Officer.
4. The defendant shall not seek employment at a labor organization as defined by Title 29 USC section 402, as an officer or dispatcher, or in any capacity that handles labor organization funds, including but not limited to, business agent or any position in an accounting department for a period of 13 years.
5. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from himself.

USA vs. Sergio Rascon, JrDocket No.: CR 15-00276-ODW

6. The defendant must not argue or subsequently move to reduce the duration of the 13 year prohibition on employment by or related to certain entities following conviction as set forth in Title 29 USC section 504(a)(1) through(5) to a period of less than 5 years.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately.

All fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), the Court shall impose a sentence sufficient, but not greater than necessary, to comply with the purposes set forth in paragraph (2) of this subsection. The Court, in determining the particular sentence to be imposed, shall consider --

1. The nature and circumstances of the offense and the history and characteristics of the defendant;
2. The need for the sentence imposed --
 - a. To reflect the seriousness of the offense; to promote respect for the law, and to provide just punishment for the offense;
 - b. To afford adequate deterrence to criminal conduct;
 - c. To protect the public from further crimes of the defendant; and
 - d. To provide the defendant with needed correctional treatment in the most effective manner.
3. The kinds of sentences available;
4. The guideline sentencing range;

USA vs. Sergio Rascon, JrDocket No.: CR 15-00276-ODW

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
